

The Effects of the Mediatorial Work of Christ

LONDON BAPTIST CONFESSION OF FAITH: 8:5

The Lord Jesus, by his perfect obedience and sacrifice of himself, which he through the eternal Spirit once offered up unto God, hath fully satisfied the justice of God, procured reconciliation, and purchased an everlasting inheritance in the kingdom of heaven, for all those whom the Father hath given unto Him.

SURVEY OF SCRIPTURE

1. The Lord Jesus, by his perfect obedience and sacrifice of himself, which he through the eternal Spirit once offered up unto God (Hebrews 9:14; 10:14; Romans 3:25-26)
2. hath fully satisfied the justice of God, procured reconciliation, and purchased an everlasting inheritance in the kingdom of heaven (Joh 17:2)
3. for all those whom the Father hath given unto Him (Heb 9:15)

WHAT DOES THIS TEACH US?

This section tells us what Christ accomplished and the effects by His obedience and sacrifice.

1. That Christ _____ the justice of His Father.
 - a. Hebrews 9:26: _____
 - b. Daniel 9:24: _____
 - c. Galatians 3:13: _____
 - d. Ephesians 5:2: _____

2. He purchased _____ reconciliation for his people.

a. Romans 5:10: _____

b. Romans 5:11: _____

3. He purchased for His _____ an everlasting inheritance in the kingdom of heaven.

Romans 5:21: _____